The Nationalist Party of South Africa, asking for the restoration of the Boer republic, is informed by Premier Lloyd-George that such independence is impossible, because the present system of government of the Union of South Africa is based on a solemn and lasting agreement be tween the British and the Boers of that country . GIVE TO THE LIVING.

If we give unto the living as we lavish on the dead,

Kindly thoughts and gentle phrases, tender words and friendly praises, Blotting out all imperfections, holding virtues up to light; If we left no daily token of our love and care unspoken—

Then would life be well worth living in a world all glad and bright.

If we offered to the living, as we heap upon the dead,

Fragrant flowers of affection, blossoms of sweet recollection, Waiting not till hands are folded on the quiet, pulseless breast, Then the passion of our pleading would not fall on ears unheeding, Nor our tears fall, unavailing, on the weary form at rest.

If we gave unto the living as we lavish on the dead, All our heart's long-hidden treasure, all love's full, unstinted measure, Adding, day by day, new jewels to the crown of human bliss,

Then life's burdens would weigh lightly, and the sun would shine more brightly, And not Heaven itself were fairer than a world as glad as this. -Ida Goldsmith Morris in New York Times.

Mothers of yesterday baked bread in big, generous loaves. Mothers of today are urged to buy their bread in large loaves.

Small loaves mean waste—they require more labor, more fuel, more handling, more pans, more wrapping paper, greater delivery expense. It costs your grocer more to handle small loaves.

The big loaf of Bersy Ross is produced without waste. You use it without waste. It stays fresh. It's better flavored, too, and eaten to the last crust.

"Gee," he said, "I can't hurt that big fellow. I've been slamming him with everything I've got. I can punch too, but I can't make an impression on Willard. "If Dempsey hurts Willard he's got to hit him mighty hard. He's in condition and will get better as he goes along. I think he's right. Yesterday Chip punched and slammed with the champion and had no trouble at all in hooking lefts into the side of Willard's head and crossing rights to the jaw. Chip's work has convinced me that any man smaller than Willard who can move his arms fast can get in close and hammer away at the champion heavyweight jaw of the world. Tex Rickard had some things to say of the condition of the boxers.

"That boy is a man of iron," remarked of Jack Dempsey. "I never before saw a boxer trained to the condition of that fellow. He looks positively tireless and fast as lightning. He undoubtedly is one of the greatest specimens of manhood that ever lived.'

Dempsey's boxing yesterday, a surprise to the ringside patrons at the camp, was a revelation. Terry Keller was in the ring with Jack.

Terry is no slouch with his fists. He had little trouble finding Dempsey's head with a left straight, but Dempsey rolls his head with a peculiar movement in taking these blows that is baffling. Dempsey slammed away at Keller. He smashed the Keller chin for keeps and made Terry appear a bit groggy.

Dempsey will not box today. He

Jack Hemple Shows Champion That Little Fellow Can Reach Him Easily

TOLEDO, June 20-Jess Willard's favorite sparring partner is Jack Hemple, who has shown the champion numerous times that it is possible for a small boxer to reach a bigger one effectively. Willard likes to box with Hemple because Hemple is just about the size of Jack Dempsey, who hopes to grab Willard's title

Training Methods of Bezdek Are Shown By Condition of Twirlers

By H. C. HAMILTON (United Press Staff Correspondent.

Joe declared today that he be- the trouble. Dempsey, on the other has been driving forward with a club hand, is a willing mixer, so it seems that doesn't figure to stand higher that both champion and challenger are than a low place in the second divi sion. National leaguers have learned long since that this football coach who suddenly was catapulted into the big leagues as a manager, is to be respected, not only for his methods of teaching men to play baseball, but also for his strategy on the field.

That Bezdek is a shrewd judge of baseball material is shown by the additions he has made to the Pirates since he took over the reins of government laid down by Jimmy Callahan. In Southworth alone, to say nothing of Caton and Boeckel, he has added a man who can hit like a demon and field well enough.

Bezdek's best methods are devoted to conditioning of athletes, all of which is well brought out in the form shown by his pitching staff. He has the veteran Babe Adams pitching like a colt, while Bullet Miller and Wilbur Cooper are winning a great share of the games they start.

Bezdek is well fortified for talent His infield is the sparkling tribute to his genus, built from Vic Saier at first base, George Cutshaw at second, Buster Caton at short and Boeckel at third, he has a combination that is very fast and composed of most pow-9 erful hitters.

The outfield that holds Max Carey of course, cannot be sneezed at. With 1 Casey Stengel and Southworth as run ning mates. Max is boss of a fine gang of outer workmen.

The catching staff of the Pirates is not strong and Bezdek has not been able to put his full infield strength into the field, with rather disastrous results at times. His team has been in and out during the year, winning brilliantly at times, but woefully 1a. ing at others. His constant application to the rule he brought to the league, however-that training makes the athlete-is having its effect. Na tional leaguers fear the Pirates more than they are willing to admit.

The fans of Pittsburg have shown their appreciation of Bezdek's succes by turning out for him as they did in the days when Fred Clarke was smashing opposition. Large crowds have patronized Forbes field, even larger than the optimistic hopes of Barney Dreyfuss.

Stories About Yankee Food County Secretary Kitzmiller and Soldiers' Crimes Are Circulated

By CARL D. GROAT (United Press Staff Correspondent) BERLIN, June 19.—"How are Americans treated in Berlin?" This question has been frequently asked-and the answer, at present, is that they are unmolested, and for the most part courteously received.

For a time, it is true, American officers traveling were counselled to ge into mufti, rather than take chances of inciting some hothead to trouble. In the case of couriers, mufti is worn on some trips, but those coming and going between Paris and Berlin appear in uniform and are rarely annoyed though occasionally someone tries to crowd on a sidewalk or gives the officer an ugly look. As for civilians, there are only a few here-mainly newspaper men-and they are treated respectfully. This represents the individual situation regarding Americans.

As for the United States as a whole and American citizens as a whole there is still prevalent some propaganda of an unpleasant sort.

President Wilson has been condemned because the peace treaty did not develop according to the way ir which the German people felt his fourteen points should have been interpreted. But there was little of per sonal attack against the president and only here and there articles with an anti-American tinge.

However, in the last few days, a propaganda movement-somewhat limited, but nevertheless more or less per sistent-has sprung up. One hears of late that "really no American food is coming in," though it is, of course, well known to the government that money articles have appeared in the press, seeking to detract from the American soldiers in the Rhine country. One in "Der Tag," for instance, averred that the Americans had introduced "wild west manners" in the occupied territory; that they drank to excess; that they ousted people from their homes and often went in, demanding "wine and blonde women." The writer referred to them as "Arizona kickers." The above extracts, however, were overshadowed by the printed claims that women had been criminally attacked, and that one, at least had been choked to death.

The American mission had under consideration protesting against such articles, but it was understood that nothing resulted, in view of the fac that the article above mentioned, though grossly exaggerated and displeasing, was nevertheless an isolated Indigestion and practically all forms o stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either of two things.

LABOR BODY PLANS TO IGNORE INJUNCTIONS

ATLANTIC CITY, June 20.—The
American Federation of Labor convention this afternoon unanimously pays radio operators as telegraphers.

One of two things.

Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentation by the use of a little Bisurated Magnesia at their meals.

Appeals For Discharge of Obligations

In looking over the Sabbath school reports I find that fifteen schools say they have not contributed to the state and county expenses for 1918, and twenty-one others do not answer the question. The contributing ones have given $165.00; our apportionment was $340.00

All Sabbath schools using the uniform or the graded lessons are in-debted to the work of the Internationat Sunday School association for the advantage of having these lessons. The state organization brings the fruits of the international researches and laboratory work within our reach through conventions, conferences, and organized correspondence. The county organization serves as a distributor, even to the remotest and smallest schools, of the improvements and advancements in the teachings of God's Word and reaching the hearts and wills of boys and girls and men and women, and encouraging and aiding the establishment of helpful activities, ocally.

So this appeal is made to the schools, large and small, of Orange county, to discharge this $175.00 obligation which still rests upon us for 1918. For years the agreed apportionment has been six cents per member, based on average attendance. If your average attendance for 1918 was 25, then your proportionate share of the expense is $1.50; if it was 250, then $15.00.

It seems that some schools authorized the payment of their quota in 1918, but the county treasurer, J. R. Goodwin, 2401 Santiago street, Santa Ana, has received remittance from

Not in all cases, however is there complaint that America has failed to send what it agreed. On the contrary one hears now and then that the government is passing off its old army bacon, and saving the newer, better American bacon for the guards or for other purposes. In any case the average Berliner doesn't overlook the fact that America's food supply has helped to keep the wolf from the door when he was getting near to biting off the doorknob.

Late to Meet Train. But the License Shows Miss Pool, Mrs. Waters

Mr. Orville Waters, for some eight years a capable and popular member of the Register's linotype force, is now a benedict. He did not become a benedict, however, with any appreciable degree of ease-in . fact, his course of true love did not run smooth at all for the space of a few hours.

A couple of years ago when Miss Huel Pool became the bride of Chauncey Pond, Mr. Waters was best man, while Miss Hallie Pool was her sister's attendant. Two Pools, a Pond, plus Waters it was labeled at the time "a wet wedding"-and no wonder!

Now comes Miss Hallie Pool from Cerulean Springs, where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pool, and her kinsfolk, Mr. and Pond, reside, to become the bride of Mr. Waters.

The twain were to meet in Los Angeles on Wednesday eveningat least Mr. Waters was given to understand that Miss Pool's train would arrive then. Here enters trouble

Mr. Waters, imbued with the idea that getting married was quite his own affair, slipped away from the Register office Wednesday morning without leaving any word as to his whereabouts. Also, on Wednesday morning came a telegram to the Register from Miss Pool. She had arrived in Los Angeles ahead of schedule where was Mr. Waters?

Alas, nobody knew! A wire sent to her in reply said that he had departed for parts unknown. Late that afternoon Mr. Waters with an anxious, perturbed expression upon his usually serene countenance, was seen in his trusty machine speeding madly toward Los Angeles with a fine disregard for speed cops. Los Angeles papers today car ried the record of a marriage license issued to Mr. Waters and Miss Pool.

There may be logical question as to the efficacy of the League covenant in its present form. GIVE TO THE LIVING.

If we give unto the living as we lavish on the dead,

Kindly thoughts and gentle phrases, tender words and friendly praises Blotting out all imperfections, holding virtues up to light;

If we left no daily token of our love and care unspoken-

Then would life be well worth living in a world all glad and bright If we offered to the living, as we heap upon the dead,

Fragrant flowers of affection, blossoms of sweet recollection, Waiting not till hands are folded on the quiet, pulseless breast,

Then the passion of our pleading would not fall on ears unheeding, Nor our tears fall, unavailing, on the weary form at rest.

If we gave unto the living as we lavish on the dead, All our heart's long-hidden treasure, all love's full, unstinted measure,

Adding, day by day, new jewels to the crown of human bliss, Then life's burdens would weigh lightly, and the sun would shine more brightly

And not Heaven itself were fairer than a world as glad as this. -Ida Goldsmith Morris in New York Times.

History of the School.

To many people the idea of the Daily Vacation Bible School is something new-something that is being tried-out. There is a sense in which this latter is true. That is, in relation to the churches in smaller communities. But the Daily Vacation School as an organization is just passing out of its teens. It will be exactly twenty years the twelfth of July, 1919, since Mrs. W. A. Hawes, of New York City, conceived the idea. She was impressed by the needs of the children who wandered the streets in the summertime and by the opportunity afforded for religious as well as social

The movement was popular from the very beginning. Mrs. Hawes, writing of the school, says: "The school opened the first day with an attendance of one hundred and fourteen boys and girls. "In and out And 'round about Goes the leading lady." Miss Harriet Owens, who plays the stellar role of Vera Revendal in "The Melting Pot," was chosen by the cast to accompany Ernest Crozier Phillips to Los Angeles this week on an interovement here and have developed esting search for paraphernalia necessary to the high school production of June 25.

The first place of interest visited was the Flagg Scenic Company, where the scene reproducing center of Los Angeles is located. Stage sets in all degrees of progress were inspected. een limited to the large cities it has Several futuristic and impressionistic been demonstrated that it can be problems in the new art or stage direction were in process of execution. A very attractive roof garden set was chosen for the fourth act of "The Melting Pot." To demonstrate some of the new features, Mr. Flagg motored the party to the Burbank theater, where a professional stage director was re hearsing a new comic opera.

Then followed a round of costumers. At Fischer's, the most extensive and best period costumes for both men and women were found. Wolf and Bean supplied the cutaway and Prince Albert coats necessary, for the men of the play, while the Temple Company produced the conventional top-hats and a unique costume for Frau Quixano. The real interest for the feminine members of the party was in the display of gowns, mostly imported, at Madame Schlank's, in Hollywood, whose creations are used by prominent cinema stars. A large number of gowns were tried on, and three were selected for Miss Revendal, and one for the baroness.

Aren't you interested to see the result of their search?

CLUNE'S THEATER

One Night Only, Wednesday, June 25

Gather at Santa Ana Čity Hall at 2:30

AT MEETING

The meeting has been called for 2:30 o'clock. The call was signed last week by a number of Orange county Republicans, who have declared their complete confidence in United States Senator Hiram W. Jonhson.

It is proposed through the club to be formed tomorrow to keep Orange county in the forefront as a sup-porter of the Californian's candidacy for the Republican nomination for President of the United States.

The call for the meeting was signed by the following: J. P. Baumgartner, W. H. Thomas, A. J. Crookshank, W. B. Williams, L. A. West, William C. Jerome, Mrs. N. P. Tedford, R. Y. Williams, J. C. Burke, Richard Melrose, John A. Cranston, Z. B. West, By the election of officers yester- Obarr, John N. Anderson, Mrs. W. S. more, Edward K. Benchley, T. E. Stephenson, T. B. Talbert, H. A. Was-

The horticultural commissioner finds that the apricots of 1918 brought the county less than $700,000.

Hemet and San Jacinto will harvest 16,000 tons, so the Hemet Chamber of Commerce reckons. The Elsinore Press finds that the Banning-Beaumont district will have 4000 tons more.

The only problem that remains now to be solved will be how to pick and deliver all this quantity of fruit to the canners without loss by rotting, as was the case in the hot weather of

Three years from now, when over 800 more acres of apricot orchards come into full bearing in this county, a normal yield will be upwards of 35,000 tons.

"Gee," he said, "I can't hurt that big fellow. I've been slamming him with everything I've got. I can punch too, but I can't make an impression on Willard.

"If Dempsey hurts Willard he's got to hit him mighty hard. He's in condition and will get better as he goes along. I think he's right." Yesterday Chip punched and slammed with the champion and had no trouble at all in hooking lefts into the side of Willard's head and crossing rights to the jaw. Chip's work has convinced me that any man smaller than Willard who can move his arms fast can get in close and hammer away at champion heavyweight jaw of the world, Tex Rickard had some things to say of the condition of the boxers. "That boy is a man of iron," he remarked of Jack Dempsey. "I never before saw a boxer trained to the condition of that fellow. He looks positively tireless and fast as lightning. He undoubtedly is one of the greatest specimens of manhood that ever lived."

Dempsey's boxing yesterday, a surprise to the ringside patrons at the camp, was a revelation. Terry Keller was in the ring with Jack.

Terry is no slouch with his fists. He had little trouble finding Dempsey's head with a left straight, but Dempsey rolls his head with a peculiar movement in taking these blows that is baffling. Dempsey slammed away at Keller. He smashed the Keller chin for keeps and made Terry appear a bit groggy.

Dempsey will not box today. He will resume active boxing tomorrow Billy Miske probably will be here tomorrow. Dempsey expects him to return with Bill Tate who is in Min-

Jack Hemple Shows Champion That Little Fellow Can Reach Him Easily

TOLEDO, June 20-Jess Willard's favorite sparring partner is Jack Hemple, who has shown the champion numerous times that it is possible for a small boxer to reach a bigger one effectively. Willard likes to box with Hemple because Hemple is just about the size of Jack Dempsey, who hopes to grab Willard's title

Jess, however, will have something to say about said grabbing and that is one reason he is keeping Hemple

Training Methods of Bezdek Are Shown By Condition of Twirlers

By H. C. HAMILTON

(United Press Staff Correspondent. PITTSBURG, June 20 .- Afflicted dition of Jess Willard than any man lard is a waiting fighter and usually with injured ahtletics, Hugo Bezdek, who has approached the big chamilays back until the other man starts manager of the Pirates, nevertheless with injured ahtletics, Hugo Bezdek, pion. Joe declared today that he be-lieves Jess is in fine shape. the trouble. Dempsey, on the other has been driving forward with a club hand, is a willing mixer, so it seems that doesn't figure to stand higher that both champion and challenger are than a low place in the second division. National leaguers have learned long since that this football coach who suddenly was catapulted into the big leagues as a manager, is to be respected, not only for his methods of teaching men to play baseball, but also for his strategy on the field.

That Bezdek is a shrewd judge of baseball material is shown by the additions he has made to the Pirates since he took over the reins of government laid down by Jimmy Callahan. In Southworth alone, to say nothing of Caton and Boeckel, he has added a man who can hit like a demon and field well enough.

Bezdek's best methods are devoted to conditioning of athletes, all of which is well brought out in the form shown by his pitching staff. He has the veteran Babe Adams pitching like a colt, while Bullet Miller and Wilbur Cooper are winning a great share of the games they start.

Bezdek is well fortified for talent. His infield is the sparkling tribute to his genus, built from Vic Saier at first 674 base, George Cutshaw at second, Bus-617 ter Caton at short and Boeckel at 542 third, he has a combination that is 521 very fast and composed of most pow 469 erful hitters.

The outfield that holds Max Carey of course, cannot be sneezed at. With 341 Casey Stengel and Southworth as run ning mates, Max is boss of a fine gang of outer workmen. The catching staff of the Pirates is not strong and Bezdek has not been able to put his full infield strength into the field, with rather disastrous results at times. His team has been in and out during the year, winning brilliantly at times, but woefully 1a. ing at others. His constant applica tion to the rule he brought to the league, however-that training makes the athlete-is having its effect. Na tional leaguers fear the Pirates more than they are willing to admit.

The fans of Pittsburg have shown their appreciation of Bezdek's succes by turning out for him as they did in the days when Fred Clarke was smashing opposition. Large crowds have patronized Forbes field, even larger than the optimistic hopes of Barney Dreyfuss.
